Case Study - Salcombe Day Nursery

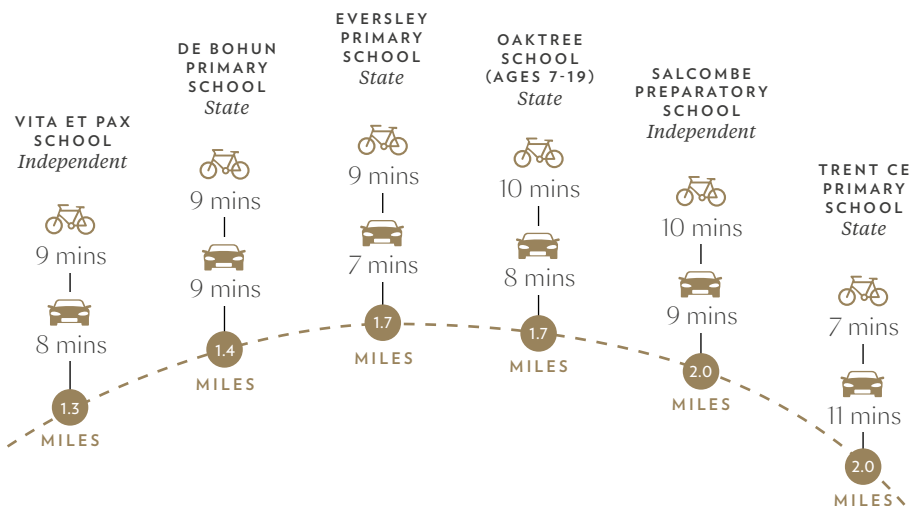

GENDER
Mixed

AGES
3 months-5 years

Salcombe Day Nursery and Pre-School in Southgate, North London, is a welcoming backdrop to a warm, friendly and stimulating environment. Established over 20 years ago, this former bank has been recently refurbished, including a much loved adventure playground space. Acclaimed locally for its outstanding standards in daycare, Salcombe Day Nursery is ideal for commuters, situated close to Southgate Underground Station, the M25 and A406.

Rated 'Good' by Ofsted, the nursery lies in the catchment area of several leading schools.

Three themes bring on young people at Salcombe and promote good learning at home; 'Growing Writers', 'Growing Mathematics' and 'Growing Readers' lay the foundational skills that enable each child to flourish with the confidence and capability to succeed at school.

AGES
4-11 years

Conveniently situated just a 7 minute cycle ride from Trent Park and three minutes from Cockfosters Tube station, Trent CE Primary School is rated as “Outstanding” by Ofsted. Working in partnership with the local church, Christ Church Cockfosters, the school is committed to a curriculum that excites, challenges and supports every child.

Pupils have a wealth of opportunities to learn, enriched by a curriculum of sport, music and the arts. Welcoming young people from the local area at Reception stage through to Year 6, Trent CE Primary School also places great emphasis on practical skills, including modern languages and computing, so all pupils have the best start in life.

“Life in our school is diverse and busy. Our curriculum aims to excite, challenge and support every child, to find strengths and to build aspirations.”

Ms L Yarwood, Headteacher

Case Study - Dame Alice Owen's School

GENDER
Mixed

AGES
11-18 years

Steeped in glorious English tradition and history, Dame Alice Owen's School is dedicated to shaping intellectual curiosity in young minds. The school's impeccable success in public examinations is widely recognised as some of the best results in the country. Through the Dame Alice Owen Foundation, students directly benefit from an enhanced learning experience filled with sporting, musical, dramatic, artistic and technological opportunities. The best of traditional learning is the school's essence, with a strong emphasis on helping students to become resilient to life's setbacks through strong pastoral care, reflected in longstanding traditions of respect for each other, good manners and a smart appearance.

"Strong academic and curriculum opportunities make our students the best-rounded individuals they can be."

Mrs Hannah Nemko, Headteacher

WORLD-CLASS STUDY OPPORTUNITIES

London's universities are among the best in the world – impacting on all aspects of life and vital for our future.

FURTHER EDUCATION

Universities of global excellence

Trent Park is perfectly located for further education opportunities. The site itself was once the home of Middlesex University, now relocated in nearby Hendon (North London). This established university is known for its arts, science, technology and social sciences. Access to London's world-class universities includes globally respected University College London, London School of Economics, King's College London and Imperial College to name just a few. Newly redeveloped King's Cross, just 26 minutes from Oakwood Underground station, is the home of Central Saint Martins - UAL, that is internationally outstanding in the creative arts.

Imperial College London

UNIVERSITIES
