The restoration of WISTERIA WALK includes the refurbishment of the York Stone path and pink marble columns.

Politicians, Prime Ministers, royalty and famous personalities frequented these stately grounds and grand rooms. For some, it was a weekend retreat to revel in divine company and a place to be wowed and entertained. Sir Winston Churchill pictured in the photograph below at the original Wisteria Walk.

TRENT PARK'S elegant open air swimming pool, popular with society guests of the 1920's, is now beautifully restored for residents to enjoy.

OPEN AIR POOL AND READING ROOM

Set in peaceful, private surroundings, the open air pool is your invitation to take a dip and enjoy the crystal clear waters. The reading room is located on the ground floor of Trent Park House. This relaxed space is the perfect spot to lose yourself in a book and unwind amidst the grand decor.

KEEPING FIT AND HEALTHY

The rejuvenated Orangery is an aesthetic delight, where you can stay active with everything you need in one place. In these opulent surroundings, you can work on the body and mind, and channel energies into a new interest.

ROYALTY and the rich and famous enjoyed time on these courts. RENOVATED to modern standards, enjoy a sense of history as you prepare to serve.

Henry VIII, Elizabeth I and James I took to regal horses to hunt deer through these ancient woodlands, where Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II visited as a child, to play, roam and escape into the estate's splendour.
